

Winter Dangers

The Board just received an email indicating children were playing on the ice around and covering the pond. A Board member went to the Commons and told the children to not venture out on the ice again. They indicated that they would not do so again.

Please tell your children or visiting children to stay away from the ice around the pond and let them know how dangerous it could be to walk on the ice atop the pond.

The Board appreciates your cooperation.